

The National Association of Broadcasters, a lobbying organization, should NOT be allowed to determine the satellite radio services I receive.
Out with the old order and in with the new.

William Perry